MEVI 78
INTERVENORS

RULE 60(b)(6) MOTION TO AMEND THE FINAL JUDGMENT OF FEBRUARY 26, 2002, AS AMENDED DECEMBER 30, 2011

Initiative Intervenors, Hester J. McCrary, Kelly Jacobs and Mississippi Early Voting Initiative 78 (herein collectively called "MEVI 78"), move this Court to Amend the Final Judgment Order of December 30, 2011, to clarify:

- 1) That the Final Judgment Order only addressed the conduct of congressional elections to meet the requirements of federal law;
- 2) That the Judgment did not change the five congressional Districts for any purpose beyond the conduct of federal elections; specifically, the Order did not abolish the five districts existing on February 26, 2002, or on December 30, 2011;
- 3) That the Judgment did not void any provision of Mississippi Constitution Section 273.

This Court has retained jurisdiction to "implement, enforce and amend this Judgment as shall be necessary and just". The MEVI 78 Intervenors move this Court to do so by making clear the limits of its prior Judgment.

Respectfully Submitted, this the ____ day of _____, 2021.
